

KASK's EVO ALL MOUNTAIN – The Pleasure of Safe Comfort

Safety and comfort form the foundation upon which all KASK products are based. For avid skiers, both are necessary elements to aid effectively in attaining top performance.

KASK's EVO ALL MOUNTAIN is the first in range of the new winter 2010/11 collection, all made in Italy. EVO ALL MOUNTAIN features include: cap and integrated visor for total protection from atmospheric agents and solar rays, maximum solidity, and shock absorption in the event of an impact.

The cap is constructed from polycarbonate with a roll-fit neck-fitting adjustment capability. A micrometric closing buckle strap under the chin is included to allow for precise fitting to any size, ensuring ideal comfort.

The removable and washable inner padding is breathable, and provides ideal thermal comfort in any atmospheric condition.

Impressed yet? Notice the nape of the neck protector made in breathable velvet to ensure a high comfort level at every angle.

The color range includes white, black and stainless steel grey. Top-notch design, technology, safety and comfort are KASK's style, as always. Enjoy KASK products on your unforgettable winter holiday.
